Graduation News Flash

From the Office of the Registrar

December 2009 graduates will receive a diploma by mail and one original transcript. If you plan to walk in the ceremony, we will provide the gown/cap/tassel. Mount Vernon students will receive their regalia at practice, and external students will be able to pick their regalia up at their campus closer to the May 9, 2009 ceremony.

The Office of the Registrar will send out information once all the arrangements have been made.
